

Horizon Ridge

Storytellers in song, Horizon Ridge is a group of fine multi-instrumentalists and seasoned vocalists known for their intuitive tight harmonies and polished a cappella singing. Based in Calgary, Alberta, the band has entertained audiences at festivals, music clubs, events, and concerts in Canada, the US and the UK.

Horizon Ridge is versatile and engaging with performances embracing traditional and contemporary folk, country, and roots.

Their albums Enough is all you need and Unison In Harmony feature a blend of original and favourite songs and showcase the band's ability to move effortlessly through musical styles and genres. They teach instrumental and vocal harmony workshops, and are currently working on new recordings, including a winter / seasonal album.

Concerts • Music Clubs • Festivals • Events • Workshops

contact@horizonridge.ca • www.horizonridge.ca

Horizon Ridge

"With a repertoire reflecting their diverse musical backgrounds - from Canadiana, east-coast kitchen parties, country & blues to contemporary and traditional British folk - a Horizon Ridge concert brings you on a musical journey through tight, four-part a capella harmonies to intricate multi-instrumental arrangements – and always with an invitation to sing along." - Tom Coxworth, host of CKUA's "Folk Routes"

*"...this seasoned foursome have performed extensively in Canada and beyond and have folks singing along, clapping, even dancing! Their wonderful mixture will gladden your hearts and you'll return to your homes with a lightness of being. Not to be missed if they appear in your world....period!"
- J. Langejans, Creekside Concerts, Priddis, Alberta*

"Horizon Ridge is a joyful group of performers with beautiful harmonies and an infectious stage presence guaranteed to put you in a good mood! With an eclectic mix of traditional, folk, country, blues and gospel - there's something for everyone!" - Eric West, Soundbone Summer Music Series, Newfoundland

"Our Second Saturday crowds are serious, experienced listeners and know good music when they hear it. Horizon Ridge had them on their feet wanting more." - Paul Cooper, Musical Director, Houston Folklore & Music Society

*"Horizon Ridge was enjoyed by thousands at the Interior Provincial Exhibition for their harmonies, engagement, and energy. They were a dream to work with and the crowds loved them!"
- Yvonne Paulson, General Manager, Interior Provincial Exhibition, British Columbia*

...a multi-talented quartet whose tight harmonies and folk/roots songs will provide a fabulous evening of entertainment. They are true storytellers in song with a balance of emotional honesty and technical virtuosity. They are both happily old-fashioned and contemporary. Book them - you'll enjoy every minute." - Phil Jackson, On The Edge Concert Series, Calgary, Alberta

